

Captain's Cove Accomack County, VA

Captain's Cove is a growing community resting on approximately 2,000 acres on the Western Shore of the Chincoteague Bay, just 30 miles south of Ocean City Maryland. The community features 11 miles of waterfront, with an abundance of bayfront, waterview, and canal lots. With incredible resort-like amenities featuring a championship golf course, an indoor pool, and 2 outdoor pools - one is bayfront with a fantastic tiki bar! There is also a marina with boat launch, fitness center, library, full-service bayfront restaurant, snack bar, playground, walking trails, dog park, tennis, and basketball courts. There is always something going on in the Cove live entertainment at The Marina Club, potluck dinners, and many community organizations you can become involved with.

The Cove is an ideal location for boating, fishing, crabbing, kayaking, and jet skiing on the bay and creeks. It's only a short 25-minute drive to the ocean/beach, Chincoteague Island, and Assateague National Seashore, where the wild ponies roam free. The community is considered the best kept secret on the east coast. This affordable community makes Captain's Cove the perfect choice for your next home!
